Abstract: The Milwaukee Woman's Service Club was originally a section of the Milwaukee Woman's Club called the Junior Society of the Milwaukee Woman's Club. On January 11, 1935, although still affiliated with the senior club, it became a separate entity known as the Milwaukee Woman's Club Juniors. In November 1937 the name was changed to the Milwaukee Junior Woman's Club. In 1944 the club severed its direct connection with the Milwaukee Woman's Club and became a full member of the Federation of Women's Clubs with the new name of the Milwaukee Woman's Service Club.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of minute books and a scrapbook of clippings and programs.
