Abstract: Frank L. Weyenberg founded the shoe manufacturing company in 1901 at 122 Reed Street (currently S. 2nd Street). Weyenberg was named president when the company incorporated in 1906, and about 1910, the company built its first plant on Brown Street. Weyenberg Shoe acquired the Nunn-Bush Shoe Co. of Milwaukee in 1967. Frank Weyenberg retired from the firm the following year, and passed away on July 4, 1976, at age 94. The company eventually became the Weyco Group and continues to manufacture shoes under the Florsheim and Nunn-Bush brands among others.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of company annual reports and reports to stockholders.
