Abstract: The Common Council first met in 1846 after the three villages of Juneautown, Kilbourn town and Walker’s Point merged to form the City of Milwaukee. The council’s duties included levying special taxes for city improvements, borrowing money/issuing bonds for street work, and to provide the building of sewers, sidewalks, etc. From 1858-1874, Milwaukee’s Common Council consisted of two elected boards – the Board of Aldermen and the Board of Councilors (see Mss-0737 and Mss-0738 for those records). The bicameral system was abandoned in 1874, and the current unicameral organization was adopted.

Scope and Content: Collection consists of council proceedings, publications, annual and miscellaneous reports, manuals and other ephemera. The collection is arranged by the following series: Miscellaneous, Manual and Annual Reports, and Proceedings.

Administrative Note: Processed by Steve Daily, 1998, and Kevin Abing, 2000.
