Abstract: The Zeidler family was very prominent in Milwaukee politics and the Socialist Party. Carl Frederick Zeidler (1908-1945), a lawyer, served as Assistant City Attorney, and in 1940, he was elected Mayor of Milwaukee, running as a non-partisan. He enlisted in the U.S. Navy Reserve and in August 1942 volunteered for active duty. In late 1942 Carl Zeidler was listed as "missing in action" when the La Salle sank and he was placed on the "died in action" list in October 1945.

Frank P. Zeidler served three terms as a Socialist Mayor of the City of Milwaukee (1948-1960). Prior to that he had served as a member of the Board of School Directors of the Milwaukee Public Schools (1941-1948) and as the County Surveyor of Milwaukee County (1938-1940). In addition, he was secretary for the Public Enterprise Committee and since serving as Mayor, he also was director of the state department of resource development for Gov. John Reynolds. Beyond his political career, Frank was a fundraiser, assistant to the dean and instructor for Alverno College, a teacher, a labor arbitrator, and a consultant. Mr. Zeidler was also known as an author and speaker on Milwaukee history.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of clippings, articles, speeches, newsletters, flyers and other materials relating to Carl and Frank Zeidler, as well as some limited information on the other members of the Zeidler family. The bulk of the collection is materials relating to Frank Zeidler's interest in numerous subjects.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English

Notes: The collection was processed by Janet K. Geronime, in May 1994; added to by Kevin Abing in June 1999 and Samantha Kailas in May 2015.
