Historical Note: First conceived in the summer of 1974 by Anders Segerdahl to promote the observance of the Bicentennial of the American Revolution and the role of Swedish-Americans in American history, a working committee comprised of Harry H. Anderson, Bertil Winstrom, Richard Horngren, and Segerdahl held its first meeting on September 24, 1974. By May 6, 1975, the Swedish-American Historical Society of Wisconsin, Inc. was incorporated as a non-profit organization whose purpose was to promote a greater awareness and appreciation of the role of Swedish immigrants in the growth and development of Wisconsin.

Administrative Note: The collection was processed on February 18, 1999 by Mike Jacobs and on September 1, 2000 by Steve Daily. Material was added to the collection on February 8, 2005 by Kevin Abing.
