Abstract: The society was established in 1929 with the purpose of educating its members about the importance of preserving historical artifacts and buildings around Wisconsin. The group commonly donated funds to support various historical projects, such as the Jeremiah Curtin house in Greenfield. The Society also supported and donated furniture and books to the library and the museum of Villa Terrace.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of minutes, correspondence, history and program pamphlets detailing their various activities.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English

Administrative Note: The collection was donated in January 2010.
