Inclusive Dates: 1955 – 2005

Bulk: 1.6 cu. ft.

Location: BV, Sh. 279

Abstract: Delta Kappa Gamma was founded with the purpose of educating and advancing women in society. Through scholarships, conferences, and programs, the group maintained a strong membership. There is an International Delta Kappa Gamma Society. Within this society there is the Sigma State of Wisconsin. Within the Sigma State of Wisconsin there are many chapters of the organization. Milwaukee had five chapters: Alpha Alpha, Alpha Lambda, Delta, Sigma, and Xi. This collection consists of records of three of these chapters: Alpha Lambda, Sigma and Xi. The collection has meeting minutes, program booklets, and scrapbooks dealing with the activities of these chapters of Delta Kappa Gamma. Photographs of various events are located in M-193.

Administrative Note: Processed by Mike Reuter September 5, 2006. Added to and reprocessed by Amanda Wynne in 2010.
