Abstract: Blessed Virgin of Pompeii Church was organized in 1899, and the church was constructed in 1904. It was widely known as “The Little Pink Church” because the bricks were painted pink during the renovations of the 1950s. The church was torn down in 1967 for the construction of the freeway, but many of the church’s records and paintings survived through the effort of Mario A. Carini.

Administration Note:

This collection was donated by Mario A. Carini. The collection was processed in June 2011 by Amanda Koehler.
