Historical Note: The Freie Gemeinde of Milwaukee, a German-American free-thinkers and musical society, was formed April 7, 1867, and chartered Feb. 5, 1868. The society built and furnished a hall on Fourth Street in 1870 which housed their library and reading room, and was the site of society sponsored dances and lectures. In 1928 the Freie Gemeinde dedicated their headquarters, Jefferson Hall, on Fond du Lac Avenue which served as the society's social and entertainment center. The society also put out a German-English publication, Das Freie Wort /The Voice of Freedom.

Administrative Note: The collection was reprocessed on Jan. 21, 1991 by Mary B. Rieder. Material was added to the collection on Feb. 8, 1996 and processed by Steve Daily. The finding aid was retyped on September 27, 2011.

Note: Some items were transferred to Sm Mss German-American Press
