Abstract: Most of the material in this collection are family mementos of Ralph and Eleanor Ricker. Ralph was the son of John S. Ricker, a pioneer soap manufacturer in Milwaukee. Ralph was born in the family home on N. Marshall Street, which later became the home of Gen. Arthur MacArthur, father of Gen. Douglas MacArthur. Ralph graduated from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1893 and practiced law for 30 years in the east before retiring and returning to Milwaukee. He was an elder of Immanuel Presbyterian Church and he belonged to Chi Psi fraternity.

There is also one folder of material pertaining to Adeline Ricker (Ralph’s sister). Adeline was a noted concert pianist, teacher, lecturer, group organizer and critic. She was active in promoting Milwaukee’s first music week in 1924 and was a charter member of several music organizations. She was heard frequently as organist for Christian Science churches and was a member of the Sixth Church of Christ, Scientist.

The balance of the collection consists of material pertaining to the Ricker family or special events or organizations – most with a Milwaukee connection.
