Abstract: The Milwaukee Citizens for Equal Opportunity (MCEO) was established in 1960 to support the civil rights movement in the South. Eventually, however, the group focused its attention on local civil rights issues, in particular open housing and school segregation. MCEO ultimately merged with the Citizens Committee for Fair Housing Practices.

Scope and Content: The collection includes newsletters, flyers, brochures and other ephemera that detail the organization's activities, especially concerning school desegregation and fair housing in Milwaukee.
