Abstract: Marquette University Professor Alfred Sokolnicki organized the Mazur Polish Dancers of Milwaukee in 1940. The first group numbered 250 members, and their objective was to prepare for a presentation of a “Polish Wedding” at the 1941 American Legion Convention in Milwaukee. Shortly thereafter, the group was reorganized to include only teenagers. Since then, the group has earned national recognition for presenting and preserving Polish dances and customs.

Scope and Content: The collection contains announcements, programs, bulletins, clippings and a history of the group donated by its founder, Alfred Sokolnicki.
