

Title: Milwaukee Typographical Union No. 23

Reference Code: Mss-2555

Inclusive Dates: 1867 – 1974

Quantity: 000.03 cu. ft.

Location: Sm Mss

Abstract: According to one newspaper account, Milwaukee Typographical Union No. 23 was the first labor union in Wisconsin, organized in 1859. Its purpose was to represent the interests of workers in the printing/graphic arts industry.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of the constitution and by-laws, 1867; a program for a benefit performance arranged by union members at the Schubert Theater for WWI soldiers; union constitution and by-laws, 1974; program for the 114th annual convention of the International Typographical Union, 1972; constitution and by-laws of the International Typographical Union, 1969; copy of Your Career in Printing and the Graphic Arts; Milwaukee Journal newspaper clipping, 1959

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English