

Title: National Conference of Christians and Jews-Wisconsin Region Collection

Reference Code: Mss-0959

Inclusive Dates: 1956 – 1994

Quantity: 0.3 cu. ft.

Location: BV, Sh. 121

Abstract: The National Conference of Christians and Jews (NCCJ) was founded in 1928 to “promote justice, amity, understanding and cooperation” among Catholics, Jews and Protestants. The Wisconsin Conference began in 1934 with a Milwaukee committee, and by 1939, the organization had grown across the state sufficiently so that a full-time director was hired.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of by-laws, correspondence, minutes, meeting announcements, director’s reports, newsletters, programs, award booklets and newspaper clippings.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English