

Title: Naprstek, Vojta Collection

Reference Code: Mss-1605

Inclusive Dates: 1982 – 1990

Quantity: 0.03 cu. ft.

Location: Sm Mss

Abstract: Vojta Naprstek was a student activist in Vienna during the 1848 revolutions. He fled the Austrian Empire following the uprisings and came to the United States where he settled in Milwaukee. In Milwaukee, he edited the Milwaukee Flugblatter. He later travelled the U.S. before returning to his homeland under an 1858 amnesty.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of articles, primarily by Dr. Zdenek Solle, about Naprstek's life.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: Czech, English

Notes: The collection was processed by R. Fuhrman, September 1990, and added to by Janet Geronime, January 1991.

Arrangement:

Contents	Box #	File #
Pamphlet (in English) describing the life of Vojta Naprstek, n.d.		1
Magazine (in Czech), Sbornik , including article "The American Years of Vojta Naprstek" by Zdenek Solle, 1983		1
Article (in Czech) by Zdenek Solle about Vojta Naprstek, 1982		1
Article (in Czech) by Zdenek Solle about Vojta Naprstek, 1986		1
Article "Vojtech Naprstek and his era: Bohemia, the United States, and the Transmission of Cultures" by Zdenek Solle (with cover letter and envelope), 1990		1