

Title: Kriehn, Ruth Papers

Reference Code: Mss-2470

Inclusive Dates: 1988 – 2001 and undated

Quantity: 0.7 cu. ft.

Location: CV, Sh. 311

Abstract: Ruth Kriehn was a professor of human kinetics at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee for 22 years. After her retirement, she turned her attention to her family's history. The end result was the publication of The Fisherfolk of Jones Island in 1988.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of transcriptions of court cases and newspaper clippings related to Jones Island compiled by Kriehn as well as correspondence related to the publication and reprinting of The Fisherfolk of Jones Island. Also included are family histories of the Franz Kriehn family and the Carl Kriehn and Ewig families.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English