Abstract: Goodwin Berquist spent over thirty years researching and writing about James Kilbourne and his son Byron Kilbourn, one of the early founders of Milwaukee. In 1983, as a professor in the Department of Communications at Ohio State University, he collaborated with Professor Paul Bowers of OSU's History Department on a biography of James Kilbourne, entitled The New Eden: James Kilbourne and the Development of Ohio. Thereafter, Berquist and Bowers, until his death in 1998, worked on a biography of Byron Kilbourn, which was published by the Milwaukee County Historical Society.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of research materials (i.e., notes and xerox copies) pertaining to the Kilbourn Family, rough drafts of both biographies, articles, and other miscellaneous materials.

Administrative Note: The collection was processed in July 2000 by Kevin Abing. Material was added to box 10 on Nov. 2, 2001 and was processed by Kevin Abing.
