Abstract: The Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs was organized in October 1896 by representatives of 63 clubs statewide. Since then, it has been the organization's objective to provide a networking system for women's clubs in Wisconsin and with clubs from other state federations and GFWC headquarters. Its mission has been to "address the needs of our clubwomen, our communities, our nation and our world for our mutual benefit through volunteerism."

Scope and Content: The collection consists of federation histories, issues of the Wisconsin Clubwoman magazine (1945, 1961-1975, 1989, not inclusive), Fourth District directories (1975-1978); Convention programs from the General Federation of Women's Clubs (1900 & 1963) and the Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs (1922 & 1946), miscellaneous brochures, and a scrapbook of clippings, letters and photos of the Motion Picture Division of the organization.
