

Title: Kuhns, Carl

Manuscript Number: Mss. 0679

Inclusive Dates: 1872-1907

Bulk: .003 cu. ft.

Location: Sm. Mss.

Scope and Content: Carl Kuhns was born in German. He studied art in Berlin, Germany. He was an artist, sculptor, instructor and businessman. He moved to the city of Milwaukee in 1881 where he opened an art studio on Wisconsin Ave. Mr. Kuhns replicated Gustav Hung's wood carving of King Gambrinus, the art piece is in the courtyard in the Best Place Tavern. He was also part of Milwaukee Musical Society, the Steuben Society, and other German organizations. The collection consists of the following items: a pencil sketchbook, invitation to commencement ceremonies at Cornell University (1907), a booklet containing an address by Andrew Carnegie to students of Cornell University on Ezra Cornell Centennial Day (4/26/1907), and a certificate (1875).

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English, German

Administrative Note: Processed by Illiana Zambrano, October 31, 2018.

Note: See oversize: Birth Certificate (1972)