

Title: Kuehn, Louis

Manuscript Number: Mss. 1457

Inclusive Dates: 1926-1996

Bulk: .003 cu. ft.

Location: Sm. Mss.

Scope and Content: Louis Kuehn was born in France on November 5th, 1867. He immigrated to the United States in 1888 and lived in Ohio. In 1902 he moved to the city of Milwaukee and established Milwaukee Corrugating Company, which focused on manufacturing sheet metal for roofing, eavestroughs, conductor pipes and elbows, shingles and much more. The collection includes a biography of Mr. Kuehn; appraisal for art and household property of Mr. Kuehn's home on Lake Drive; Milwaukee Magazine (1996), newspaper clippings and two drawings.

Photos: M-158

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English

Administrative Note: This collection was donated by Jane Cascaramo on November 1997. Processed by Illiana Zambrano, October 24, 2018.