Abstract: Alexander C. Guth was a Milwaukee native and local architect. He attended Columbia University in New York City, and after graduation, he returned to Milwaukee to work in Herman W. Buemming's architectural firm. He joined the firm of Herbst & Kuenzall in 1926, but ill health forced him to leave the firm in 1933. That year, Secretary of Interior Harold Ickes appointed Guth to head the Historic American Buildings Survey (HABS) in Wisconsin. He was active in a number of organizations and was one of the founders of the Milwaukee County Historical Society. He passed away in 1943.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of HABS notes and photos pertaining to historic structures around the state of Wisconsin.
