Abstract: Freedom and Friendship Village are retirement communities located in Milwaukee near 76th St. and Dean Rd. Residents began living in this community in 1989 after its groundbreaking in September of that year. A partnership between Aurora Sinai Health Care and Freedom Village also existed, which provided access to health care benefits for residents within the community. In 2004, ownership of the Freedom/Friendship Village retirement community changed to Trinity Court and was formally renamed Trinity Village.

Trinity Court was known as Village at Manor Park in 1991, changing its name in 2004 after merging with Freedom/Friendship Village. Trinity Court changed its name once again in 2012 to “VMP” which stands for Village at Manor Park.

Scope and Content: This collection contains materials donated by resident David Moberg concerning Freedom Village, Trinity Court, Village at Manor Park, and Aurora Sinai Health Care. It includes newsletters (“The Oak Leaves” and “The Villager”), resident handbooks, newspaper clippings, advertisements/brochures/pamphlets on the communities, activities, and events, personal correspondences, memos, bible study materials, photos, and resident council meeting minutes. Oversized photos, scrapbooks, and a large schematic map are also included.

Access and Use: No restrictions
