Abstract: Alverno College is a Catholic, liberal arts, historically women's college on Milwaukee's south side. It was founded in 1887 as St. Joseph's Normal School and became Alverno Teacher's College in 1936. Its current name was adopted in 1946. The school remains a women's college in its undergraduate programs but its graduate programs, which includes nursing, psychology, business, music, and education, are coeducational.

Scope and Content: The collection includes informational brochures, annual reports, campus publications Alverno Today and Alverno Magazine, press clippings, and programs and promotional materials related to campus events.

Access and Use: Unrestricted

Language: English

Administrative Note: Transferred from MSS 1868 Colleges and Universities. Processed by Taylor Kelley, December 2019.
