Abstract: Phillip Best was born in September 1814 in Germany, the son of Jacob and Eva Best. After his common-school education, Philip learned the brewing business in Germany and France. He relocated to Milwaukee in 1844 and with his father and brothers launched the Best Brewing Company. Phillip became the sole owner in 1859, and the brewery became the Phillip Best Brewing Company. Phillip died in Europe in July 1869, and control of the brewery eventually fell to Frederick Pabst and Emil Schandain.
