

Title: National Slavonic Society Collection

Reference Code: Mss-0964

Inclusive Dates: 1912

Quantity: 000.03 cu. ft.

Location: Sm Mss

Abstract: Peter Vitazoslav Rovnianek helped found the National Slavonic Society in Pittsburgh, PA, in 1890. Its purpose was to provide a measure of financial security for its members as well as cultural, social and educational opportunities. In 1913, the group's name was changed to the National Slovak Society.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of the April 1912 monthly membership roster/dues statement for the Milwaukee chapter.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English/Slovak