Abstract: Father Reinhart Gutmann established an Episcopal City Mission on N. 27th Street in 1945 as a social center for children on Milwaukee's West Side. The organization became Neighborhood House in 1950, and as it grew, it added a nursery school. In 1967, Neighborhood House moved to its current location at 2819 W. Richardson Place. In 1993, the organization began providing literacy services to recent immigrants, primarily from Southeast Asia and Africa.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of two campaign booklets and several issues of Neighborhood House newsletters.
