

Title: Northside Community Conference Collection

Reference Code: Mss-0985

Inclusive Dates: 1965

Quantity: 000.03 cu. ft.

Location: Sm Mss

Abstract: The Northside Community Conference was an organization of delegates representing various religious, civic, social, educational, labor, business and other groups located in or serving the area bounded by W. Juneau Avenue and W. Keefe on the south and north and N. 20th and Holton Street/Milwaukee River. It served as a source of information to address community needs, coordinate member efforts, and develop volunteer leadership.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of the organization's constitution/by-laws and an information booklet.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English