

Title: Potter, Paraclete Collection

Reference Code: Mss-1099

Inclusive Dates: 1848, 1973 – 1974

Quantity: 000.03 cu. ft.

Location: Sm Mss

Abstract: Paraclete Potter (1784-1858) was a prominent newspaper editor and politician in Poughkeepsie, New York. After experiencing financial difficulties as a result of the Panic of 1837, he relocated to Milwaukee in the 1840s and served as a school commissioner and was involved with the incorporation of the Milwaukee & Mississippi Railroad.

Scope and Content: The collection consists primarily of George Flowers' correspondence and research notes about Potter. Also included is a warranty deed witnessed by Potter, 1848.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English