

Title: Spahn, Warren Collection

Reference Code: Mss-1375

Inclusive Dates: 1963

Quantity: 000.03 cu. ft.

Location: Sm Mss (1 item)
OS SM "S" (1 item)

Abstract: Warren Spahn (1921-2003) was a star baseball pitcher, primarily for the Boston/Milwaukee Braves. He retired in 1965 with 363 wins, the most ever by a left-handed pitcher. He was elected to major league baseball's Hall of Fame in 1973.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of a citation from Milwaukee County Executive John Doyne recognizing Spahn for his baseball achievements and military service during World War II. Also included, in oversize, is a copy of a Look magazine article from April 1963.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English