

Title: Sandburg, Carl Collection

Reference Code: Mss-1192

Inclusive Dates: 1953, 1978

Quantity: 000.03 cu. ft.

Location: Sm Mss

Abstract: Carl Sandburg (1878-1967) was a noted American poet and author. He was born in Galesburg, Illinois. After he left college, he moved to Milwaukee where he became involved with the Social Democratic Party and even served as secretary to Emil Seidel, Milwaukee's first Socialist mayor. He moved to Chicago, where his literary career flourished.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of a photocopy of a July 1953 letter from Sandburg to Conrad of the Milwaukee Journal with a handwritten note to Mayor Frank Zeidler as well as a letter and schedule from Knox College in Galesburg announcing a symposia in honor of the 100th anniversary of Sandburg's birth.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English