

Title: Teen Challenge of Wisconsin, Inc. Collection

Reference Code: Mss-1347

Inclusive Dates: 1987 – 1988

Quantity: 000.03 cu. ft.

Location: Sm Mss

Abstract: David Wilkerson founded Teen Challenge, a nationwide ministry, in 1961. It spread to create more than 100 residential centers in the U.S. and in 27 foreign countries. The organization's purpose was to "communicate the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to troubled people wherever they are."

Scope and Content: The collection consists of a plan of operation and program proposal; a paper entitled "There's a Cure for a Broken Life" and another entitled "Research Summation-H.E.W. Study on Teen Challenge Training Center;" a copy of a Saturday Evening Post article entitled "Teen Challenge: Conquering Drugs;" correspondence to/from director Eugene Berres; and Berres' business card.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English