

Title: Witte, Frances M. Collection

Reference Code: Mss-3066

Inclusive Dates: 1891 – 1921

Quantity: 000.03 cu. ft.

Location: Sm Mss

Abstract: Frances M. Witte (née Stewart) was born in Fayetteville, NY, in March 1842. Her family moved to Milwaukee County later that same year. In July 1861, she married Richard Witte and settled in the Town of Greenfield. Her husband died in 1886, and she moved to Milwaukee. While in Milwaukee, she was very involved in Milwaukee's literary circles and had several poems and prose published in the local newspapers. She passed away in August 1920.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of correspondence to Frances Witte from her family, primarily her son Will who attended Rush Medical College in Chicago, worked at the Presbyterian Hospital in Chicago, and set up a practice in Milwaukee.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English. Two letters in German.