

Title: Bardell, Eunice Bonow

Call Number: Mss-0067

Inclusive Dates: 1978 – 1988

Bulk: 0.03 cu. ft.

Location: Sm Mss

Abstract: Eunice Bardell was a professor-emeritus in Health Sciences at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and a former Fellow of the American Foundation for Pharmaceutical Education.

Scope and Content: Collection of articles written by Eunice Bardell in magazines such as Wisconsin Pharmacist and Pharmacy in History.

Administrative Note: The collection was retyped on Aug 2006 by Steve Daily.

CONTENTS
“The Role of German Immigrants on the Health of Early Settlers of Milwaukee” 1978 (3 copies)
“Primitive Physick: John Wesley’s Receipts” 1979 (2 copies)
“WPhA History: The Knights of the Mortar—at Oshkosh” 1979
“Yesterday’s Drug Store Comes Alive” 1979 (1 original and 1 copy)
“He Took It Upon Himself” speech given at Wisconsin Pharmaceutical Assoc. convention 1980 (2 copies)
“Into Our Second Century” 1981
“A Famous Prescription Incompatibility” 1983
“Dame Agatha’s Dispensary” 1984
“A New England Pharmacist in Love” 1985
“London Pharmacist Exposed Fraud” 1985
“Dona Flor and Her Two Husbands” 1985
“The Novels of Tobias Smollett, M.D.” 1985
“The Novels of the American Pharmacist, John Uri Lloyd” 1987
“Pharmacists in Motion Pictures” 1988
“A. W. Hatch Advertisement” nd
“Thallium as ‘An Untraceable Poison’” 1988
“The Health Care in Nineteenth Century Milwaukee, Wisconsin” 1977