

Title: Charles Allis Art Museum

Reference Code: Mss-0219

Inclusive Dates: 1947-2008

Quantity: 00.03 cu. ft.

Location: Sm Mss

Abstract: The Charles Allis Art Museum was originally the home of Milwaukee-native Charles Allis and his wife Sarah. The family was very active in the community, and Charles was one of the organizers of the Milwaukee Arts Society, and a trustee at the Layton Art Gallery. Upon their deaths, they donated their mansion, filled with unique artwork, to the public. This became the Charles Allis Art Museum officially in 1979.

Scope and Content: The collection contains constitutions, reports, brochures, articles, board meeting agendas, and Focal Point newsletter, and flyers.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English