Abstract: Jeffrey Dahmer was the most notorious serial killer in Milwaukee history. After his arrest in July 1991, it was learned he had raped, murdered and dismembered 17 men and boys between 1978 and 1991. He was tried and convicted of 15 of the 16 murders he had committed in Wisconsin and sentenced to life in prison. He was beaten to death on November 28, 1994, by a fellow inmate at the Columbia Correctional Institution.

Scope and Content: The collection contains newspapers, VHS tapes of trial witnesses (taped from Court TV), magazines, and office documents related to the Dahmer case.

Access and Use: No restrictions. Must obtain permission from Court TV for reproduction of VHS tapes.

Language: English, Spanish

Notes: The collection was donated by Elisa Castellon, October 2017.

Arrangement: Arranged chronologically. Magazines and records whose dates could not be determined or were in different languages were put in a misc folder.
