Abstract: The Church Collection is divided into two sections: Papers and Records.

The papers section of the collection includes materials relating to individual churches. These materials are varied in type and amount. The papers may include newsletters, histories, weekly programs, reports or other miscellaneous material. These papers are organized denomination, and then by individual parish.

The records section of the collection includes the actual records kept by the churches. Records may include membership lists, baptisms, confirmations, marriages, burials, etc. These records are organized by church and all records are on microfilm.
