

Title: Decker Family Papers

Reference Code: Mss-1981

Inclusive Dates: 1849-1993

Quantity: 000.03 cu. ft.

Location: Sm Mss

Abstract: The Decker family were situated for the most part in Maine and Maryland, but Edward Decker was a brother-in-law to Jeremiah Curtin and was instrumental in establishing Kewaunee County as well as the Village of Casco in Wisconsin.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of family group sheets, a census record chart, descendants chart, biographies/obituaries, copies of newspaper ads featuring John Decker's business, a copy of John Decker's patent and a map of Maine.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English