

Who Am I?

X B T P Y G G Z I K D P S V K N K X R A
D J W O G I J G W V A Z T B X W S E J N
R A Q B O Q R I U U X T I E F O G Y P I
L Z N M A T D Y X O U I C E I R R K D X
V P Z I L I Z P U Z E E K J E X W B L C
H C R I E Z D O A F P T V B T S R N L O
S T M G B L N A M G O E R N S U W I L T
G Z K V D S H Y D S V O P M C N A A E F
L A D C E Y J O T L T A W G H T D F H E
U A U C U G Z A A C G T A O U T N C C D
R U E A V D X F I N Y L N M Y X W Q T L
Y G V W E S E V O S Q K N B B T R A I A
R U N L W V M H L S E B E C K J I Q M A
D M D W V Y I B T D Q U G G P D U A Y G
C A R L Z E I D L E R N R T K H B T L B
X V S S I O T A G M I I M V G O H V L B
A X Q A E H U X Y X O T Z Q M E C Q I P
T E K U W S H U H V B B R U J K M P B F
S O N X F K A R J P U O H E N H Q S V Z
U X J B P G Z O N P W I D F G D S W S M

To play the game “Who Am I?” You will be given three clues about a famous image during the time period 1914-1945 in Milwaukee’s history. There are boxes for each letter of the name that you are trying to guess.

Once you have found the three names – try and locate them in the word search for added fun!

A. _____

I was a welcome distraction to Milwaukee’s Worries during World War II
My story inspired a widely read children’s book in the U.S.
I laid a clutch of eggs on a piling next to the Wisconsin Avenue Bridge

B. _____

My grandfather was known to some as “Alexander the Great” in Milwaukee
I was placed in charge of the entire Allied Air Service during World War I
Milwaukee’s airport is currently named after me

C. _____

I issued a very strong warning against the Ku Klux Klan in Milwaukee during the 1920’s
I was on the cover of Time magazine for being one of the nation’s best public servants in 1936
I served as Milwaukee’s mayor during the Great Depression

D. _____

I ran the Milwaukee Leader, a socialist newspaper in Milwaukee
I was convicted for speaking out against the government when my paper ran anti-war editorials during World War I
Congress refused to offer me my seat when Milwaukee elected me to the House of Representatives in 1918

E. _____

I was an assistant city attorney, a stirring singer, and a gifted speaker
I defeated Daniel Hoan to become mayor in 1940
I quit my job to join the Navy during World War II and declared, “My life is not my own. It belongs to my country.”