

Title: Johnson, Clarence and Cleopatra

Call Number: Mss-0609

Inclusive Dates: 1924 – 1988

Bulk: 0.4 cu. ft.

Location: ER, Sh. 019

Historical Note: Clarence Johnson was a graduate of Tuskegee Institute and moved to Milwaukee with his wife, Cleopatra, in 1921. They set up a tailor shop that was known as Ideal Tailors in the downtown area. It was one of the few black-owned businesses in the downtown area and survived the Depression. The couple helped to found what is now the North Central branch of the YMCA and the Columbia Savings and Loan.

See Also: Photo collection under Individuals/Family Groups

Administrative Note: The collection was processed on Aug. 19, 2010 by Steve Daily.

Contents	Box #	Folder #
Items related to Johnson exhibit, 1988	1	1
Echo magazine, 1976, 1979, 1982, 1984 (scattered issues)	1	2
Diplomas, awards, certificates, resolutions	1	3
Congratulatory letters, 1984, 1988	1	4
Clippings and articles, 1954-1987	1	5
Miscellaneous	1	6
Black Family International Journal 1985 (with inscription to Clarence Johnson)	1	Loose in box