Historical Note: In 1930, Jeffrey Howard Offutt and his wife, Luvenia, came to Milwaukee from Glencoe, Illinois, where he taught violin at the National University of Music and operated his own music studio. He was appointed director of the St. Mark's African Methodist Episcopal Church choir and held this position for 41 years. While there Offutt composed St. Mark's theme song St. Mark's, along with other works. In 1932, Offutt was made director of the Milwaukee Urban League's music department. His son, William T. (Ted) Offutt is also represented in this collection.

Administrative Note: The collection was processed on May 14, 1994 by Steve Daily. Material was added to the collection on Feb. 28, 2001, and the material was processed by Kevin Abing.
