

Title: Neilson, George W. Papers

Reference Code: Mss-2372

Inclusive Dates: 1916 – 1919

Quantity: 0.3 cu. ft.

Location: ER, Sh. 031

Abstract: George Whittier Neilson, M.D., was born in Milwaukee on Nov. 16, 1882, graduated from University of Wisconsin in 1905, and earned his medical degree from Marquette University Medical School in 1909. He practiced medicine with his father, Walter H. Neilson, except for the time George served in the military, until his father's death in 1922. George continued to practice medicine in Milwaukee until his death in 1942.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of George W. Nelson's war-time correspondence.

Access and Use: Original letters and envelopes are too fragile for public use.

Language: English

Notes: The collection was donated by Mrs. Gordon J. Neilson and processed by Steve Daily, August 6, 1996.

Arrangement:

Folder Heading	Box #	File #
Typed transcript of Neilson war-time letters and photocopies of photos, 1916-1919	1	1
Original Neilson letters (Fragile - Not for General Use)	1	2
Original envelopes of letters (Fragile - Not for General Use)	1	3
PHOTOS, see M-119		