Abstract: Washington High School was established in 1911 by the Milwaukee School Board to serve students around the intersection of 38th Street and Clarke. Major additions to and renovations of the buildings occurred in 1924, the 1950s, the 1970s, and 1984. The school is now Washington High School of Information Technology, described by Milwaukee Public Schools as “a magnet high school providing technology-integrated academics.”

Scope and Content: The collection includes two commencement programs (1923 and 1926), three programs for Washington High School class reunions (for the 25th reunion of the Class of 1949 in 1974, the 40th reunion of the Class of 1952 in 1992, and the 50th reunion of the Class of 1949 in 1999), and the program for Washington High School’s 100 Year Celebration: “Yesterday, Today & Tomorrow” (2011).
