Abstract: The Lefeber family owned and operated a general store called the Lefeber Brothers Co. in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin from 1896 – 1958. Cornelius Lefeber arrived in the United States in the mid 1800's from Holland. His son James opened the dry goods store and agreed to a three-way ownership with his brothers, Abram and Joseph, in 1909. James' sons Ernst, James, and Cornelius, managed the store after the elder James and his brothers passed away. In 1958, the store went out of business due to chain store competition and poor sales. The Lefeber building burned down in 1964.
