Abstract: Lindsay family collection is comprised of three families: the Lindsays, Browns, and Pollocks. The most prominent name in the collection is Frank H. Lindsay. He was a self-educated man who dropped out of high school to go to work. In addition to co-founding Lindsay Brothers and establishing himself as a prominent businessman, Frank Lindsay was a leader and a member of the board of his Baptist church. He served on the board of directors for the University of Chicago because of his fundraising capabilities. At 100 years of age he was given many accolades from around the country and was given an honorary diploma from his high school. Frank H. Lindsay married Margaret Brown and their daughter Janet married George Pollock.

Scope and Content: The collection covers the genealogy of three families: Lindsays, Browns, and Pollocks. There are Frank Lindsay's travel journal and letters to the family from his wife Margaret as well as correspondence from the Lindsays and Browns. There are files on Frank Lindsay and his brothers' business and the Marine Bank.

Access and Use: No restrictions

Language: English.
