

Title: Kilbourn, James

Manuscript Number: Mss-2388

Inclusive Dates: 1982-1983

Bulk: 0.003 cu. ft.

Location: Sm Mss.

Scope and Content: James Kilbourn was a local resident of Milwaukee. He was considered a leader and natural organizers by many who knew him. In 1800 he went on a venture to colonize the west. On May 5, 1802, he formed the Scioto Company, which focused on making a settlement in the Northwest Territory between Muskingum and Miami River. The collection includes a brief history of Mr. Kilbourn, Worthington area and church pamphlets of the Church in Ohio which he founded.

Access and Use: No Restrictions

Donor: Fredrick I. Olson

Administrative Note: Processed by Illiana Zambrano, June 5, 2018.