Abstract: Mercy High School existed from 1926-1973. From 1902-1926, the school was known as Our Lady of Mercy Academy. The scrapbooks in the collection contain clippings, photographs, programs and ephemera that span the school's existence. They also contain clippings with extensive alumnae information and photographs from various class reunions. The records also consist of school newspapers, historical information, commencement programs, reunion programs, and other miscellaneous material.

Administrative Info: The collection was donated by: Sr. Frederic Hartmann in April 1999, Rose Krenz Lucas in April 2002 and the Mercy Alumnae Association in July 2002. The collection was processed by Kevin Abing in 1999. It was added to and reprocessed in 2002. The Finding Aid was retyped in 2009 by Amanda Wynne.
