Historical Note: Max William Nohl was born on April 17, 1873 in Ripon, Wisconsin and died March 26, 1943 in Milwaukee. He was a lawyer and court commissioner before his appointment as municipal judge by Governor Schmedeman on October 11, 1933. He was elected to this post until his death.

Scope and Content: The collection consists largely of letters regarding municipal court cases. Also included are personal memorabilia, correspondence, ledger books, and legal certificates. His wife, Rose Nohl (nee Klann) and her family have personal and legal documents included in the collection. There are also several oversize documents, mostly legal certificates, and a few maps.

Administrative Note: The collection was processed on July 7, 2003 by Ann Stachewicz.
