Abstract: These papers concern mainly Theobald Otjen (1851-1924), a prominent Bay View attorney and Republican Congressman from the 4th District (1894-1907). In Congress, he was instrumental in establishing the Great Lakes Naval Training Station and improving the river and harbor facilities of Milwaukee.

Scope and Content: The collection contains correspondence, reports, clippings, speeches and legislative material covering Otjen's political career. This material concerns such issues as political patronage, campaigns, pension claims, foreign affairs, as well as rivers and harbors and the Great Lakes Training Station. It also includes material from the Otjen Brothers law partnership and concerns primarily real estate and probate cases. There is also some personal papers, especially letters from his guardian Emily Ward of Detroit and material pertaining to Christian S. Otjen, Henry Otjen and C.J. Otjen.
