Abstract: William L. Pieplow (1876-1956) was secretary of the Central Committee of the People's Party (Populist) in his youth but later joined the Republican Party. In 1929 he served as secretary of the Republican state central committee, and in 1930 he ran on that party's ticket for the office of Secretary of State. Active on the Milwaukee School Board from 1902 to 1919, he was its president three times. He helped organize the 1932 George Washington Bicentennial celebration and was a much sought-after speaker for patriotic and holiday occasions. He assisted in the founding of the South Division Civic Association of Milwaukee and later published a history of that group. Pieplow also held leadership positions in Kiwanis and Goodwill.

He joined the Alcazar Range & Heater co. in 1905 as a secretary and manager and worked for the firm until 1927. Earlier, in 1913, he and two other men organized the Security Savings & Loan Association. Pieplow was president from its founding until his retirement in 1957. After World War II he led the fight against public housing through the Public Housing Referendum Committee. He was active in state and national savings and loan associations and accumulated much literature about them.

Pieplow was a prominent Lutheran layman concerned with both his home congregation, Lake Park Ev. Lutheran Church, and such larger activities as the Lutheran Lenten Noonday Services Committee of 1919. During World War II he was appointed chairman of Selective Service Board No. 11 and also engaged in many other patriotic activities.
