Historical Note: Robert S. Zigman, a fifth generation Wisconsinite, came from a family of farmers and small businessmen. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin Madison with a degree in Journalism, but later changed his career to that of Public relations. Robert also took a very active role in the Milwaukee community, particularly with organizations such as the Police Athletic League, UW Milwaukee Foundation, State Historical Society, the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, and the United Performing Arts Fund.

Scope and Content: This collection contains documents and correspondence dealing with his involvement with the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, from around 1966 up until he became president around 1973-74. There are also some miscellaneous documents pertaining to the different committees and concert programs of that time.

Administrative Note: The collection was processed on July 12, 2004 by Krista Denor.
